

March 22, 2000 – Bratislava, Slovakia

Main Topics:

- The integration efforts of V4 countries, the mission of science in this process. The creation of integration know-how, of integration in the public
- The common interests of the V4 countries in the field of science. The Central-European space in the globalization process, the problems of bio-diversity, environment and quality of life.
- Status and mission of the academies in the transformation process. Science as mediator of integration.
- The scientific areas of the 6th Framework Program. Determination of scientific goals important for V4 countries – in linkage with the conditions of the transformation and regional interest.
- The creation of the Central-European Intellectual Forum (Centra-European Davos) – the initiative of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences.
- The coordination of the Central-European scientific diplomacy.